November 17, 1752. THE Numb. 97.

VIRGINIA GAZETTE.

With the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

TRIPOLI, Auguſt 8.

FOR a conſiderable Time paſt this Regency has kept in its Service a Body of Albanians, not only on Account of their native Bravery, but alſo becauſe they made excellent Corſairs. Though theſe Albanians ſeldom exceeded 300 in Number, they lately formed the raſh Deſign of ſeizing upon the City, and eſtabliſhing a Form of Government to their own Liking: Having laid their Plot with Secrecy, they aſſembled the 31ſt of July in the Night, and fell upon the City Guards, Part of whom they maſſacred, and diſarmed the reſt; the next Thing they attempted, was to attack the Caſtle, but here they met with a Reſiſtance more vigorous: Signals were immediately made to call the Cavalry, quartered in the out Parts, to the Aſſiſtance of the City. The Albanians, finding themſelves diſappointed, ran down to the Port, in Order to eſcape by Sea, and ſeeing an Engliſh Ship ready to hoiſt Sail, they immediately got on Board of her, and put to Sea. Forty of them, who had lagg'd a little behind their Comrades, were taken, and brought the next Day into the Square before the Caſtle, where they were all beheaded, and their Heads ſtuck upon the Walls. This Affair has made the Bey and the Regency reſolve to have no more Albanians in their Service.

Madrid, Aug. 8. We are informed by Letters from Genoa, that a great Number of Ship Carpenters have lately been embarked there, in Order to be tranſported to the ſeveral Ports of this Monarchy, and to be employed in building Men of War, and other Ships for the King.

Liſbon, Aug. 23. It's confirmed that the Miſunderſtanding between this Court and the Court of Great-Britain, in Regard to the Gold Coin of this Kingdom being carried out of it by the Subjects of the latter, has been entirely regulated during the Stay here of the Lord Tyrawley. The Indiſpoſition of his Majeſty hindered him from taking Leave of that Nobleman; but he cauſed one of his Secretaries of State to tell him, 'That 'his Majeſty was extremely well ſatisfied with the Pains which he had 'taken for the Advantage of the Commerce of the two Nations; that he 'hoped by Means of the Regulations which had been agreed upon, no 'more Difficulties would ariſe of the Nature of thoſe which had been ad-'juſted; and that in the Letter which he had wrote to the King of Great-'Britain, he had more fully explained his Sentiments in this Reſpect, and 'how agreeable the Choice, which he had made of his Excellency to 'execute this Commiſſion, was to his Majeſty.'

Venice, Auguſt 30. The Captain of a Ship arrived from Conſtantinople reports, that when he came away all Things were in the utmoſt Confuſion: The Grand Signior's Authority was daily declining, his Orders were no longer reſpected, and the Faction of the Janiſſaries openly talked of dethroning him, and ſetting the Diadem on his Nephew's Head: So that we expect ſoon to receive the News of a grand Revolution in the Empire, or elſe a total Change of the pacific Syſtem that has ſo long prevailed there.

Paris, Sept. 8. The Diſſenſions between the Court and the Parliament engroſs all the Attention of the Public. It is ſaid that the latter charged all the Magiſtrates and Officers of their Reſort to ſee their Arrets executed, notwithſtanding any Ordinance to the contrary from the Court, when ſuch Ordinance has not the Forms requiſite to give it the Force of a Law. It is currently reported, that we ſhall ſoon ſee an important Declaration on theſe Matters. It is alſo pretended, that the Affair of the Clergy relative to Subſidies or Free Gifts demanded ſince the Year 1749, is on the Point of being adjuſted: The Public talk of ſo large a Sum, no leſs than Fifty-five Millions, that we apprehend they exaggerate: However it is ſuppoſed the Clergy will give a great deal to carry their Point againſt the Parliament.

Paris, Sept. 9. The Letters brought by the Ship called the India Company, arrived from Bengal at Port l'Orient, make no Mention of the Miſunderſtanding which the London News-Papers ſpeak of between the French and Engliſh in the Eaſt-Indies: Theſe two Nations act only in Quality of Auxiliaries to the Indian Princes with whom they are in Alliance: In other Reſpects they obſerve exactly the Harmony and good Underſtanding reſtored by the late Peace.——So that it is Peace or War or both, or neither, juſt as every Reader pleaſes to take it.

Paris A-la-main, Sept. 11. The Parliament has iſſued an Arret againſt the Vicar of St. Amable, in the City of Riom, in Auvergne, which condemns him to nine Years Baniſhment from the Diſtricts of Riom and Paris, and to pay a Fine of ten Livres to the King, for ſome ſcandalous and ſchiſmatic Doctrine which he advanced laſt Whitſuntide.

LONDON, Auguſt 29.

It was intimated, not long ſince, by Advices from Stockholm, that the Swedes were intent upon encouraging Fiſheries, and in particular deſigned to try their Hands at the Herring-Fiſhery, in which they pretend a Right to be indulged, by Virtue of the Tenth Article of the Treaty between Great-Britain and Sweden, concluded at London in the Year 1656, we preſent our Readers with the ſaid Article at full Length, preſuming it may be new to many of them, viz.

190 'IT ſhall be free for the Subjects of the King of Sweden to fiſh, and 'catch Herrings and other Fiſh, throughout the Seas and Coaſts be-'longing to the Dominion of Great-Britain, ſo as they do not exceed the 'Number of 1000 Veſſels employ'd in ſuch Fiſhery; nor ſhall they be 'any Way hindered or diſturbed in ſuch their Fiſhing; nor ſhall any 'Charges or Duties be exacted from them, on Pretence or Account of 'ſuch their Fiſhing, by any public Guard-Ships of Great-Britain, or their 'Privateers acting under Commiſſions or Letters of Marque, or by any 'Fiſhing Veſſels on the Northern Coaſts of Britain; but, on the contrary, 'they ſhall be treated in the moſt courteous and Friendly Manner, and 'even be permitted to dry their Nets on the Shores, and to furniſh them-'ſelves with all neceſſary Proviſions, at reaſonable Rates, from the Inha-'bitants.'——But it is doubtful whether that Treaty, or this particular Article, is ſtill in Force, though the Swedes ſeem willing to maintain that it has never been formally derogated from in ſubſequent Treaties.

We hear that an Affair, which has made much Noiſe ſome Months ago, will, next Year, be brought again upon the Carpet, in Relation to the Expediency of granting the Privileges of Britiſh Subjects to Perſons of other Nations reſiding in foreign Countries; by which, it is apprehended, thoſe Privileges may come to be in Danger, and the Government, in other Places, diſcouraged from treating us ſo kindly as otherwiſe they would be inclined; and this for the Sake of no National Benefit whatever, to reſult from ſuch Communications of our Birth-rights, improperly ſtiled Naturalization.

According to ſome Advices from Copenhagen, an Officer of the Marine, who has been twice or thrice at Greenland, has laid before ſome of the principal Officers of the Navy his Reaſons for ſuppoſing there is an open North-Weſt Paſſage into the South Seas, founded chiefly on his own Obſervations and Facts, certified at his Inſtance, by the principal Inhabitants of the Daniſh Colony, in the Country before-mentioned, and the Seamen who have been employed in Davis's Streights. It is ſaid this Diſſertation is equally ingenious and curious, but that it is not thought proper to commit it to the Preſs.

They write from Cadiz, that from certain Circumſtances they collect, the Court has not loſt Sight of the Deſign againſt Algiers, which was only poſtponed 'til the Treaty was concluded for ſecuring the Tranquillity of Italy. Some very experienced Officers and Engineers have been invited from Malta, who are well acquainted with the Place and the Moors Manner of Fortifying and Fighting, and others who have had Opportunity of getting Intelligence on that Head are encouraged to give in Memorials, notwithſtanding that it is thought nothing will be actually undertaken before next Summer.

Sept. 1. By ſome Advices from Spain we hear, that the Court being intent on encouraging the Manufactory of printed Linens lately ſet up in that Kingdom, has forbid the Importation of all foreign Manufactures of this Kind in the Port of Alicant. They likewiſe tell us, that the ſaid Court, as a Proof of it's Deſire to keep up a good Underſtanding with Great-Britain, has ſent Orders to his Catholic Majeſty's Governors in America to pay in Money the Value of the Captures that ſhall be proved to have been illegally made. We alſo hear, that the Spaniſh Miniſtry have lately ſent over a Memorial to the Regency here, relative to divers Privileges which they pretend his Catholic Majeſty's Subjects are intitled to in the Ports of England; and that the ſaid Memorial has been ſince ſent to Hanover, for farther Conſultation.

Yeſterday a Gentleman of Fortune ſurrendered himſelf to the Keeper of Newgate, charged with a Forgery committed in the Year 1709.

Sept. 19. The Garriſons on the Britiſh Eſtabliſhment in the Mediterranean, Leeward Iſlands, &c. are ordered to be augmented, for which Purpoſe Forces will ſoon be ſent over.

Two or three Men of War are ſhortly to ſail for the Coaſt of Guiney, in Order to ſettle and make a Treaty with ſome of the Chiefs who have ſolicited our Friendſhip, and are deſirous of trading with us; by which Ships ſome grand Preſents will be ſent.

Two of the Men of War, now fitting out, are going for the Eaſt-Indies; on Account of which Voyage the Compliment of their Hands are ordered to be conſiderably augmented.

They write from Madrid, that the Behaviour of the Governor of Carthagena, towards the Squadron under Commodore Keppel, has been intirely approved of by the Court, and freſh Orders have been ſent to him and all other Governors in the Ports of Spain, to be yet more ſtrict in Regard to all Ships ſuſpected of having touched on the Coaſts of Africa, or ſpoke with other Veſſels coming from infected Places. They alſo inform us, that eighteen Tartans are arrived from Naples at Cadiz laden with Timber for eight Ships of the Line actually on the Stocks there; and that many Artificers of different Nations came over from Italy in the ſaid Tartans.

We are informed by Letters from Rome, that a Report was current throughout that City, that Cardinal Tencin, Secretary of State, had communicated to the Pope a Letter he had received, giving an Account of the Pretender's eldeſt Son having changed his Religion.

It was alſo reported there, that the Pretender's ſecond Son, the Cardinal, had declared he had no Intention of being reconciled to his Father; and in Caſe he was hindered from living by himſelf in Rome, he would retire and fix at Bologna.

We hear that Alexander Murray, Eſq; has been preferred to the Command of a Company in Gen. Keith's Regiment at Berlin.

And from that Place, that a Perſon who had been ſome Time there incog. had been treated with great Diſtinction, which had occaſioned various Conjectures concerning him.

Letters from the North bring us Accounts, that the Court of Ruſſia is very attentive to the Increaſe and Improvement of their Navy, that a Ship from Peterſbourg has ſailed through the Sound in its Way to the North Sea with Rigging and Stores for the Men of War building at Colla and Archangel; and a Ship of ſixty Guns, with two Frigates from thoſe Parts, have alſo paſs'd the Sound, going to join the Imperial Navy at Cronſtat.

The laſt Advices from Hamburgh ſay, that their Greenland Fiſhery has this Year turned out as well as that of moſt of their Fellow Adventurers; the five Ships which they ſent being return'd with ten Whales.

The laſt Letters from Conſtantinople bring Advice, that the Grand Signior has been obliged to make another Sacrifice in Order to prevent a new Inſurrection; and this was the Mufti, who has been ſtrangled to humour the People and the Janiſſaries; and yet they are ſo far from being quiet and ſatisfied, that it is feared if the Sultan will not quit the Seraglio for the Camp, he may change it for a Priſon, for they ſtill ſeem determined to have a War, or a new Sultan.

They write from Bologna, that Meſſ. Verati and Mametenucci, Members of our Academy, have lately made, in Company with Meſſ. Marino, Bonelli, and Paganuzzi, the Electrical Experiment relating to Thunder. Whilſt one of them held the Iron Rod in his right Hand, and another the Chain with both Hands, a third accidentally laying his Head on a ſilken String faſtened to the Chain, a Scintillation enſued, which was attended with a Noiſe like that of Thunder; at the very Inſtant the Scintillation appeared, the three laſt Gentlemen felt a Concuſſion, but different in each of them; in the firſt it went from the right Arm to the Extremity of the Foot, in the ſecond, from both Hands to the Breaſt, and in the third, from the right to the left Arm, and along down to the Sole of the Foot. The View of theſe Naturaliſts in their Experiment, is both to avert the Effects of Thunder from that City, and to abate the Cruſh of it, which is there ſometimes very tremendous.

Of all the Actions or Sayings of Philip of Macedon, there is none perhaps more worthy of the Attention of a Free People than the following one.—That Prince ſeeing his Son went about by Preſents, or Bribes, to gain the Affection of the Macedonians, thus reprimanded him in a Letter; 'What! Haſt thou a Mind that thy Subjects ſhould look upon thee as their Caſh Keeper, and not as their King? Wilt thou tamper with them to win their Affections? Do it then by Benefits flowing from thy Virtues, and not by opening thy Cheſt to them.' However, this good Advice does not preclude the rewarding of dutiful and brave Subjects for any laudable or neceſſary Act done without previouſly ſtipulating a Recompence; for if Virtue were always to be left to be its own Reward, we ſhould probably ſoon ſee it totally extinguiſhed in the World, except among thoſe who have nothing elſe in View but a heavenly Recompence. But all that we are to inſiſt upon is, that Princes ſhould never make it a common Practice to win Hearts by Preſents, nor offer Bribes for the Performance of any Duties where the Laws and the Conſtitution intend that the Subject ſhould be left entirely free to act according to his Judgment and Conſcience; becauſe ſuch Methods blind the Eyes and pervert the Heart, and open a Door for an univerſal Corruption of Manners; than which nothing can be more pernicious to a State, if it be true, as Solomon ſays, that the Throne is eſtabliſhed in Righteouſneſs.

We hear, that when the Mutiny-Bill comes next under Conſideration, it will be propoſed to make thoſe reverend Perſons, who may in the ſtricteſt Senſe be ſtiled the Church Militant, ſtill more uſeful and regular in their Attendance, than they are at preſent; it being apprehended that a little Religion would not be amiſs amongſt the private Men, at leaſt would ſave the Trouble of frequent Court Martials, leſſen the Number of military Puniſhments, and render the Army more regular, and conſequently more acceptable in their Quarters.

Sept. 23. We hear that an Application will be made next Winter for ſhortening Proceedings in Courts of Law; that the People may preſerve their invaluable Privilege, of having all Matters in Conteſt determined by a Jury, without ſuch an Expence and Loſs of Time, as often makes Juſtice itſelf a Grievance.

They write from Liſbon, that not long ago Cardinal M*, who by the Way, it is ſaid, will ſpedily retire from Buſineſs, received a Billet from an unknown Hand, with this Hint, If your Eminency would keep the Gold in the Kingdom, promote INDUSTRY, and, inſtead of Militia, employ MANUFACTURERS.

Dublin, Sept. 1. Laſt Wedneſday Night the Truncheon was taken out of the Hand of the Statue of the Duke of Cumberland, erected in Parſonſtown. A very large Reward has been offered by Sir Lawrence Parſons, for diſcovering the Villain who took it; as alſo a conſiderable one by the Roman Catholicks of Birr.

WILLIAMSBURG, November 17.

The Emperor of the Cherokee Nation with his Empreſs and their Son the young Prince, attended by ſeveral of his Warriors and great Men and their Ladies, were received at the Palace by his Honour the Governor, attended by ſuch of the Council as were in Town and ſeveral other Gentlemen, on Thurſday the 9th Inſtant, with all the Marks of Civility and Friendſhip, and were that Evening entertained, at the Theatre, with the Play, (the Tragedy of Othello) and a Pantomime Performance, which gave them great Surprize, as did the fighting with naked Swords on the Stage, which occaſioned the Empreſs to order ſome about her to go and prevent their killing one another. The Buſineſs of their coming is not yet made publick; but it is ſaid to relate to the opening and eſtabliſhing a Trade with this Colony, which they are very deſirous of. They were diſmiſſed with a handſome Preſent of fine Cloaths, Arms, and Amunition; and expreſſed great Satisfaction in the Governor's kind Reception, and from ſeveral others; and left this Place this Morning.

Friday laſt, being the Anniverſary of his Majeſty's Birth-Day, in the Evening, the whole City was illuminated. There was a Ball, and a very elegant Entertainment, at the Palace, where were preſent, the Emperor and Empreſs of the Cherokee Nation, with their Son the young Prince, and a brilliant Appearance of Ladies and Gentlemen; ſeveral beautiful Fireworks were exhibited in Palace Street, by Mr. Hallam, Manager of the Theatre in this City, and the Evening concluded with every Demonſtration of our Zeal and Loyalty.

Entered Inwards, in the Port of South-Patowmack.
